

josh luukkonen

Josh Luukkonen

Author of I Am Zombie

jluukkonen.weebly.com

Josh Luukkonen is a writer living in Edmonton, Alberta. He is currently a Junior High teacher, and writes whenever he can make the time.

Josh is a trained high school teacher, and has worked in both the United States and the United Arab Emirates.

Josh has written two novels, I Am Zombie (currently editing) and Give Up, along with short stories and poems.

In addition to teaching and writing, Josh plays music, and has been a drummer in numerous bands in his home state of Michigan in the USA. In addition, he has released a split e.p. with a friend of his, which can be downloaded on his Bandcamp site (jluukkonen.bandcamp.com).

Josh's life-long dream has been to write, and now he is getting a chance to focus on it. He isn't looking for fame or riches, but wants to see a work of his reach someone, make an impact, touch a life. "Even one person who is touched by art is something blessed and special." He wants to make that impact on the world.

Email: josh.luukkonen@me.com

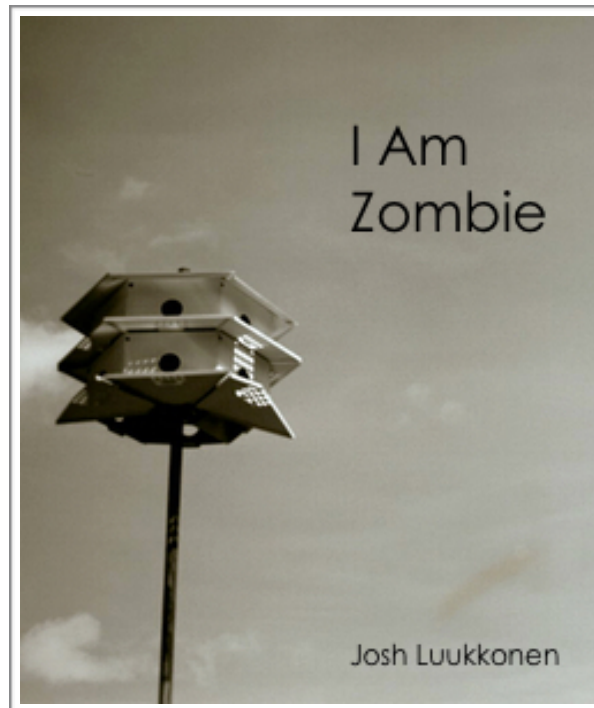

Twitter: @joshypoika

Skype: josh.luukkonen

More about I Am Zombie

Summary:

Adam Newman wakes up on a Saturday morning to find himself turned into a zombie. The thought disgusts him; it terrifies him. He tries to figure out a way to accept this new fate, as in doing so, discovers a secret. Far off into the woods, an experimental facility called the Hive is working on a plan to turn the zombies into an army. How far will Adam be willing to descend into its depths, and what will it mean for freedom, rights, and the future of all of his race? Ex-fiancee Felicity and a new acquaintance named Harmon complicate matters. How do you fight for your rights when you hate what you are?

Details:

Manuscript complete

This is Josh Luukkonen's second novel

Approximately 220 pages, 8 Chapters, 63,700 words.

Suitable for Upper High School or above (Contains gore, a few curse words, existential angst)

Inspired by Kierkegaard and Sartre, with a dash of Dawn of the Dead social commentary